

The Student Newsletter

Clothing Drive Success

This is where to add some interesting information about the story. Write about what someone might want to know about what happened. Add in all details about the event: where the event happened, when it happened.

Most readers will be most interested in how and why it happened.

Upcoming Events

Write about what events are happening in the next few weeks and why readers might be interested.

